

HONK & HOLLER CALLBACK INFO

About Honk & Holler:

We are excited to work with our students to create a brand new one-act play based on the life of a young Supreme Court Justice and women's rights advocate, Ruth Bader Ginsberg.

Honk & Holler will be the story of how Ginsburg, as a young lawyer at the ACLU, convinced an all-male Supreme Court to take discrimination against women seriously, using a case about discrimination against men.

Together as a cast and crew, and with permission from Radiolab, we will build the story based around one of their most popular podcast episodes: More Perfect: Sex Appeal.

What to Prepare:

As we have no official script yet (we can't wait to workshop one with you in our rehearsal process!) we'd like you each to search out a small fact, a little story, or a fun anecdote about the one and only RBG. It can be fun, touching, and fact driven. It should be short. Give us a snapshot glimpse of what Ruth was like. Come in and tell us about her in a fun and theatrical way. Whatever that means to you! Also, please bring a copy of your original Shakespeare monologue with you to the callback.

Resources:

You can find tidbits on YouTube from interviews RBG has done, and from news clips and programs. There are also multiple documentaries about Ruth. You will easily find a fun factoid about Ruth's contributions, life philosophies and her personal life. Who knows – we may use your callback audition as a part of our show!

Questions? See Lauren or Trent in the theater offices.
See you at callbacks!
